

Global Challenges in Transport
 TRANSPORT STUDIES UNIT
 SCHOOL OF GEOGRAPHY AND THE ENVIRONMENT
 SAID BUSINESS SCHOOL
 UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Smart Technologies & Changing Behaviours

13th -16th March 2018

@TSUOxford , @OxfordTransport , #STCB2018TSU

	9.15	9.30-11.00		11.30-13.00		2.00-3.30		3.45-5.15		Evening
13 th March (Tues)					Welcome Lunch	Introduction to course	Coffee	Dr Tim Schwanen Smart technologies and behavioural change	6.15 pm Edward Kell Pre-dinner talk: Leadership & Sustainability 7.30 pm Networking dinner (Kellogg Colleg)
14 th March (Weds)	Arrival	Dr Debbie Hopkins Innovations in freight transport	Coffee	Stuart Mc Carrol Yellow the new green. How can ofo dockless bikes change the face of sustainability & mobility?	Lunch	Professor John Miles New technologies in public transport	Coffee	Professor Graham Parkhurst Autonomous vehicles and society	5.30 pm Pre-dinner problem solving workshop 7pm Informal pub dinner in Oxford
15 th March (Thurs)	Arrival	Dr Brendan Doody Driving into the future: Exploring the practices of electric vehicle adoption and use	Coffee	Reflective Session	Lunch	Professor David Banister Low-carbon urban mobility and ride sharing	Coffee	Robbie Tilleard 'Nudging' behaviour: transport and society	6.30pm Formal end of programme dinner (Brasserie Blanc)
16 th March (Fri)	Arrival	Professor Lorraine Whitmarsh Attitudes, behaviours, and new technology	Coffee	Reports from problem-solving workshop - reflective session	Lunch

All Global Challenges in Transport courses are taught by active academic researchers from the University of Oxford and invited guest lecturers from our public, private and academic sector partner organisations.

Smart Technologies & Changing Behaviours 13th -16th March 2018

@TSUOxford , @OxfordTransport , #STCB2018TSU

All Global Challenges in Transport courses are taught by active academic researchers from the University of Oxford and invited guest lecturers from our public, private and academic sector partner organisations.